Introduction

Nigeria is Africa's largest economy with abundant natural and agricultural resources. Every year, billions of dollars flow into the country through exports of agricultural produce, solid minerals, and manufactured goods.

But for many new exporters, the process feels complicated and risky. The truth is: exporting can be simple, structured, and profitable if you start with the right knowledge.

This beginner's guide will give you a clear, step-by-step foundation to understand:

- What export really means in the Nigerian context
- Why export is one of the fastest routes to building wealth
- The basic requirements you must meet as a first-time exporter
- The top mistakes to avoid
- And most importantly, how to take your first steps with confidence

By the end, you'll see that export is not for "big men only." With the right information, you too can play in the global market.

CHAPTER I

Why Export?

- Foreign Exchange Advantage: Earn in USD, EUR, GBP while spending in Naira.
 - Untapped Global Demand: Products like sesame seeds, cashew, ginger, and hibiscus flowers are in high demand worldwide.
 - Government Support: Exporters enjoy incentives like tax waivers and access to grants.
 - Wealth Creation: Export opens you up to global buyers and long-term business partnerships.

CHAPTER 2

Understanding Export Basics.

1. Definition: Export is simply selling Nigerian goods/services to buyers abroad.

2. Types of Exporters:
 - Direct exporters (you ship directly to buyer abroad)
 - Indirect exporters (you supply to companies who export)
 3. Two Main Categories of Export:
 - Oil Export: Crude oil, petroleum products (dominated by big corporations).
 - Non-Oil Export: Agricultural products, manufactured goods, solid minerals (where beginners can start).

CHAPTER 3

What You Need to Start Exporting: minimum requirements

1. Business Registration – Register with CAC (Corporate Affairs Commission).
 2. TIN (Tax Identification Number) – Needed for business operations.
 3. NEPC Export License – From Nigerian Export Promotion Council (mandatory).
 4. Bank Domiciliary Account – To receive foreign currency payments.
 5. Product Knowledge – Understand the quality standards and export documentation for your chosen product.

CHAPTER 4

Top 5 Mistakes Beginners Make

1. Jumping in without training or guidance
2. Ignoring international quality standards
3. Not verifying buyers (falling for scams)
4. Not having proper documentation
5. Choosing the wrong logistics partners

✦ Avoiding these mistakes can save you millions of Naira in losses.

CHAPTER 5

Quick Wins Products for Beginners

If you want to test the waters in export, consider starting with low-barrier products:

1. Ginger
2. Hibiscus flower
3. Cashew nuts
4. Sesame seeds
5. Shea butter

These are in consistent global demand and do not require huge capital like crude oil.
